

Please Consider Becoming a GRWC Season Sponsor

Dedicated to singing music that celebrates and honors the diversity of women's lives, the Grand Rapids Women's Chorus strives to educate and inspire our community to promote justice, peace, and equality. We uplift BIPOC, queer, and women musicians, composers, and artists by performing their works, and often sing about a future where we are ALL liberated, connected, and empowered. The GRWC is a diverse, inclusive, non-profit, volunteer group of singers who are passionately devoted to musical excellence and using the power of music to delight, uplift, and advance the conversation about social justice. We stand out because we are the only woman-centered, inclusive singing experience of our kind in Grand Rapids, Michigan. We have grown from just 12 singers in our first season in 1996 to an amazing group of 120 singers in our 29th season in 2024-2025. We are writing to ask you to become a GRWC Sponsor for the 2024-2025 season and help us celebrate our 29th Anniversary Year!

In July 2024, the GRWC traveled to Minneapolis, Minnesota to participate in a five-day choral community Festival produced by GALA Choruses, the Gay And Lesbian Association of choruses, held once every four years. GALA Choruses represents almost 200 Lesbian, Gay, Transgendered, Feminist and Allied choruses throughout the Americas. where choirs from around the country gathered to share ideas, skills, and repertoire. It was also a chance for us to perform with other groups, to hear new repertoire, share the Passion. Purpose. Song of the GRWC, and to experience the comradery of an international LGBTQIA+ community of over 7000 singers. We carried our GRWC message to the Festival and were true ambassadors for the City of Grand Rapids. Some comments made on social media after our 2024 performances were:

"Grand Rapids Women's Chorus brought the house down today! So proud to have you as a sister MI chorus with us. Your talents are overwhelming and your love for music is encouraging. You reminded us today that no matter what, I AM ENOUGH" ~ PRISM Gay Men and Allies Chorus

"We knew you would be on fire, but the CHILLS. I would honestly listen to you all sing the alphabet. So glad I got to hear you again. Highlight of the festival so far!!" ~ L. Newman

"It is so cool to see so many women celebrating each other and being celebrated. The energy was contagious. Thank you for existing and bringing feminine power to Grand Rapids." ~ L. Hoekstra

"I like to have my heart torn out to music, an experience the Chorus always offers. I never miss a concert and believe the Chorus plays an important role in our community." ~ K. Rose

"Every time I leave a GRWC concert, I feel like the world will be ok!" ~ K. Kelly
